Sensations: a real, untouched, pure gem of blackberry pulp. And then the flowers in this perfume, that starts to radiate its deep and crystalline grape, whose breath seems never to end. A strength, a residual oxidative integrity, a continuity and intensity in the emission, that in every inhalation its sap is captured as if it were still pulsating. Aroma that does not lose vigour on the palate, with a perfect soft/acid/tannic harmony, concentrated until creamy. Then in swallowing, in the empty oral cavity, there is a return of the pulp of its breath in aroma: last re-echo of its pure and native blackberry, that gives its maximum and persuasive sweetness of fruit. A great wine of natural fruitiness and exquisite technique.
